

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE:Freelance Journalist, Seattle, Wash. Jan. 2018- Present

- Write multiple stories a week for such publications as The New York Times, The Guardian and Crosscut.
- Articles have covered such issues as Indigenous groups teaming up with environmental organizations to protect large swaths of the US and the push to bring virtual fences to the PNW to aid in wildlife connectivity.
- Produce photos and videos to accompany written work, while maintaining a strong social media presence.

Reporter and Editor, The Associated Press, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Philadelphia, Pa. Jan. 2017- Jan. 2018

- Edited breaking news and enterprise stories, while also composing accompanying tweets and photo tweet cards.
- Coordinated breaking news coverage on weekend mornings for the East and West regions.
- Produced video and wrote a combination of spot and enterprise stories.

Freelance Journalist, Salt Lake City, Utah June 2016- Jan. 2017

- Wrote local and national articles and produced video on such topics as the presidential election and alternative religious practices.
- Articles were published in The Associated Press, The Economist, The Week and The Daily Beast.
- Monitored Twitter, related news sites and agency press releases to find top news on science and the arts.

Legislative Relief Reporter, The Associated Press, Salt Lake City, Utah Jan. 2016- June 2016

- Wrote a combination of spot and enterprise stories daily.
- Wrote dozens of articles on such topics as the Brigham Young University sexual assault controversy and the push to legalize medical marijuana.
- Worked as the morning/afternoon Breaking News Staffer once a week for Utah and Nevada.

Editorial Fellow, Nextgov (Atlantic Media Company), Washington, D.C. Jan. 2015- Jan. 2016

- Wrote daily articles on technology and the federal government.
- Monitored social media, news websites and federal agency press releases to investigate the government's use and misuse of technology.
- Regularly covered industry and government agency events.

Editorial Fellow, Washingtonian Magazine, Washington, D.C. Aug. 2014- Jan. 2015

- Fact checked and edited dozens of articles for five issues of the magazine and its sister publications.
- Wrote articles on some of the day's top culture news in and around Washington, D.C.
- Produced the daily morning newsletter on food trucks.

EDUCATION:Bachelor of Arts, Journalism and Music, Dec. 2012: GPA 3.8

Stony Brook University, Stony Brook, New York

Special Projects

- Fall 2019 Seattle, Wash.- International Women's Media Foundation grant recipient
 - Wrote a series of articles on Islamic art and culture.
- Summer 2011 St. Petersburg, Russia- Journalism Without Walls
 - Captured the rich complexity of modern Russia through articles and photographs.

Recipient

- The Guardian article, "Sister, Where Did You Go?" selected by Project Censored as one of the 25 most important news stories of 2019-2020
- Robert and Rhoda Amon Scholarship for outstanding journalism

SKILLS:Computer: Final Cut Pro, Photoshop, Illustrator, WordPress Content Management System, Basic CSS and HTML, GarageBand, Microsoft Office Suite (Word, PowerPoint, Excel)Language: Skilled in AP Style and copyediting. Proficient in American Sign Language.